Confidentiality Agreement:

To prevent damage to practices, for practice owners, as well as for the eventual buyer, it is necessary that dental practice sales be conducted in a confidential manner. If one of our listed practices interests you, we will likely provide you with information that the practice owner / seller wants handled in a confidential manner. Before we release any such information, we need your agreement to treat the information in a confidential manner. Completing this confidentiality agreement will not cause you to incur any financial obligation to our Company. You will not incur any cost or charge because of your submission of this agreement.

Rumors or dissemination of "the fact that a practice is for sale", or of other confidential information, can create serious damage and/or loss for the practice seller, and/or in turn harm the eventual buyer. Patients and/or staff may be lost. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, a practice owner's intent to sell, financial / tax data, personal information, patient information, and information regarding any legal claims or actions. Therefore, we require that you treat all information and data that we provide, about any practice owner, sale, or opportunity, with confidentiality. It is acceptable to have information we supply reviewed / evaluated by your accountant, your attorney, and/or any dental sale / transition consultant that you may use. However, you should notify them of the confidentiality of the sale and assure that they also treat all information in a confidential manner. The fact that a practice is for sale is not to be discussed with others, beyond the above noted persons who may be necessary for your complete evaluation of the practice opportunity. If after reviewing information that we send, you determine that you are not interested in pursuing purchase of the practice(s), you agree to destroy any printed / hard copies of all such data and/or information. If you received any such information in electronic format and have it saved in any way on your computer(s) or any other electronic devices, you agree to permanently delete all such information. If you wish to see the practice or visit with the owner/doctor, you agree to not contact the practice or practice owner. Notify our Company and we will arrange your visit for you. You agree to make no direct contact with the practice by visit, telephone, email, mail, or by other means that could alert staff or patients that might not yet have been informed of the practice sale. By signing and dating below, you confirm your agreement to the above and that you will maintain this confidentiality.

Facsimile transmitted copies (fax copies) and electronically transmitted copies of this Confidentiality Agreement shall be as binding as if they were hard printed copies bearing original signatures.
